

Zion, Church of the Future

Verse 1:

God has laid a stone in Zion
His Kingdom is at hand
The Assembly of the Firstborn
City of the Living God
Heavenly Jerusalem descending from above
Now, the habitation of the Lord

Verse 2:

Out of Zion will go forth
The scepter of His Kingdom
Bringing nations to obedience
And worship of the Sovereign King
He will rule and reign in every generation
Take dominion over all domains

Chorus 1:

Now heed the call, hear the command
Build the Church on the pillars of Zion
Church of the future, born of Spirit's fire
Igniting revival in the land

Chorus 2:

Rule and reign with Him repossess the earth
Shatter the chains of kings and set the nations free
The kingdoms to return, to Zion's eternal King
And the heavens and the earth become as one
The heavens and the earth become as one
